

Why Even Try (RAC Remix)

Theophilus London

Stole my heart like a thief in the night
Stopped in the tracks in the middle of a fight
To make it right let the brim-stones burn
I'll let you live yours, now let me have my turn
But you wrong thinking you could stop time
A few hours ahead baby girl not mine
I look ahead I know you see the stop signs
Blind men know, it's not green all the time You driving me insane Mrs. Rain Cloud
Moving on the road, took the same vow
Now I'm trying to u-turn on the way out
The fire all around us is played out
Standing all fours on the bed
Uh, they say some things is better not said
I bet you'd rather stick horns on your head
I bet you'd rather stick horns on your head If you think you're special, you're probably not
Why even try (why even try)
Just living a lie (living a lie)
Never been like that (never been like that)
So why even try, why even try to change Hey, whoa
Okay okay Miss Rain Cloud
Make the sun shine til the days out
You're not alone, call my name out
But what if, there's no way out
And no your words are inaudible
Reception is bad when I'm calling you
Confusion, and ?
You're no spy, I'm onto you
This letter was written in bitter form
So read carefully, don't get it wrong See that's us, but that's gone
The scarecrows, in the back lawn
That's another dress, we'll put that on
I keep it real, is that wrong?
I bet you'd rather stick horns on your head
I bet you'd rather stick horns on your head If you think you're special, you're probably not
Why even try (why even try)
Just living a lie (living a lie)
Never been like that (never been like that)
So why even try, why even try to change Making little sunshine
Til the days out

Making your sunshine
Til your calling my name out
What if there's not a simple way out
Reception is bad and you're calling me now
Never been like that
Never been like that Why why why even try (why even try)
Just living a lie (living a lie)
You've ever been like that (never been like that)
So why even try, why even try to change Thinkin' you're special (why even try)
Thinkin' you're fun
Why even try (livin' a lie)
Thinkin' you're special
Thinkin' you're fun
Why even try
Why why why even try and change Thinkin' you're special
Thinkin' you're fun
Why even try Thinkin' you're special
Thinkin' you're fun
Why even try
