

Low Light

Aquilo

Back when we were animals
And no one knew just where to find us
We were soldiers in the field
If we knew the best was behind us We would've stripped our minds at midnight
Thinking where we're gonna go
We would've stripped our minds at midnight
Thinking where we're gonna go I wanna walk with you in the low light
I wanna walk with you in the low light Back when we were innocent
We were head first and fearless
We were indestructible
We wore war paint on our faces I wanna walk with you in the low light
I wanna walk with you in the low light We would strip our minds at midnight
Thinking where we're gonna go now
We would strip our minds at midnight
Thinking where we're gonna go I wanna walk with you in the low light
I wanna walk with you in the low light
I wanna walk with you in the low light
I wanna walk with you
