

No Filter

Britt Nicole

There it is, I think we got the perfect shot.
You'd never know at dinner we didn't even talk.
And we look so amazing, who wouldn't want to be us?
But the smile that we're faking fades when the cameras off. And we hold it just for the moment.
And what we let the whole world see,
Isn't really you and me.
So tell me what's a picture worth?
If we can't say a single word?
We always put a filter on, just try to cover up the flaws.
And if we do it all for show, I think it's time we let it go. Cause I can picture us,
picture us,
I can picture us with no filter.
Cause I can picture us,
picture us,
I can picture us with no filter on. Remember when we didn't have to live a lie?
And now we can't even look each other in the eye.
Yeah, I like to believe we could go back to the start.
And if we turn it off we'll just see me in dark. Can you hold me just for a moment.
And what we let the whole world see isn't really you and me.
So tell me what's a picture worth?
If we can't say a single word?
We always put a filter on (filter on), just trying to cover up the flaws.
And if we do it all for show, I think it's time we let it go (time we let it go). Cause I can picture us,
picture us,
I can picture us with no filter.
I can picture us,
picture us,
I can picture us with no filter on. And we look so amazing who wouldn't want to be us?
But the smile that I'm faking fades when the cameras off.
And we hold it just for the moment.
And what we let the whole world see, isn't really you and me.
So tell me what's a picture worth (a picture worth)?
If we can't say a single word.
We always put a filter on, just trying to cover up the flaws.
And if we do it all for show (all for show), I think it's time we let it go (it's time we let it go).
Cause I can picture us, picture us, I can picture us with no filter.
I can picture us, picture us, I can picture us with no filter on.

With no filter on.
