Save Me

Ryan Adams

What am I doing here
In the setting sun
With the windows down?
What am I?
Like a breaking bell
Ringing like a sigh
What am I doing here?
What am I?
Somebody save me
It's just too much pain
If someone can save me
From the morning, I will remain
Somebody save me
Save me
In the early dawn

With your heavy bend
And your careless heart
Where you been?
From the windows of
Just another midnight bar
You remember everything
Everything's so far
Somebody save me
I just can't go on
If someone don't save me
By the morning I will be gone
By the morning I will be gone
Somebody save me
Save me
What am I doing here?
