

You Weren't There

Lucky Boys Confusion

I don't need your advice
I am the device
That you are living through
How long can this last
It's all in the past
And I am the living proof
You gave it away
Maybe I'm not old enough
You gave it away
Maybe I wasn't cool enough
You gave it away
Maybe you weren't there enough
There enough
Fuck it, come on
The greatest divide
Branches collide
The overcast agrees
The rotten fruit
That you prosecute
Is leaving the family tree
You plant the seed
Then you take control
Your grip has taken its toll
