

By the Sea

Rachel White

There's a dad playing ball
With his son down on the sand
And a couple in the water
Walking hand in hand
The sun is beating down
On this hot summer day
I'll just let the tradewinds
Blow my cares away
This is my favorite place to be
Sitting here by the sea
I just want to sit right here
Have some key lime pie
And drink an ice cold beer
Stay until the sun goes down
All I need's a little reggae sound
There's no place I'd rather be
Than down here by the sea
There's boats out on the water
Cruising on the bay
Someday I'm gonna buy one
So I can sail all day
See dolphins jumping out
Beyond the buoys and the pier
Not a care in the world
Just hanging out right here
This is my favorite place to be
Sitting here by the sea
I just want to sit right here
Have some key lime pie
And drink an ice cold beer
Stay until the sun goes down
All I need's a little reggae sound
There's no place I'd rather be
Than down here by the sea
It's easy to feel happy
When you've got a view like this
Leave your cares behind
Let the sea bring you bliss
I just want to sit right here
Have some key lime pie
And drink an ice cold beer
Stay until the sun goes down
All I need's a little reggae sound
There's no place I'd rather be
