

Superficial Love

Ruth B.

You're really cute, I must admit
But I need something deeper than this I wanna know when I'm looking at you That you don't only see the things you want to 'Cause I'm not perfect. I'm flawed and if you don't like that, get lost
'Cause I don't want it if it's fake
I don't want it if it's just for show, for show
I just want it if it's real and I'm thinking I should let you know, you know This superficial love thing got me going crazy
'Cause I'm so done
Not being your number one
And if you wanna keep me, then you better treat me
Like a damn princess, make that an Empress
'Cause I'm so done
Not being your number one
The superficial love Fun at first, I won't deny
But I want more than just what meets the eye.
I wanna know when you're looking at me
That you see deep into my personality 'Cause I want authentic, not just for fun
If this love is plastic, It'll break on us
'Cause I don't want it if it's fake
I don't want it if it's just for show
I just want it if it's real and I'm thinking I should let you know This superficial love thing got me going crazy
'Cause I'm so done
Not being your number one
And if you wanna keep me, then you better treat me
Like a damn princess, make that an Empress
'Cause I'm so done
Not being your number one
The superficial love I can feel you on my lips all the time but I just wanna feel you in my heart and on my mind
I can feel you on my lips all the time
but I just wanna feel you in my heart and on my mind
I can feel you on my lips all the time
but I just wanna feel you in my heart and on my mind
I can feel you on my lips all the time
and this ain't right This superficial love thing got me going crazy

'Cause I'm so done
Not being your number one
And if you wanna keep me, then you better treat me
Like a damn princess, make that an Empress
'Cause I'm so done
Not being your number one
The superficial love I can feel you on my lips all the time
but I just wanna feel you in my heart and on my mind
and this ain't right
The superficial love.
