

Now You're Gone

Jeff Lynne

I, I was crazy about you
I didn't want to be without you
And I lost what I had and now you're gone You, you always meant the world to me
You, you never wanted much you see
And you, you changed my life but now you're gone In my heart you were the one
But now, now you're gone Your photograph brings back sweet memories
Something about you I don't know what it is Your face so young, the days so long
But now, you're gone In my heart you were the one
But now, you're gone Yeah now, now you're gone
But now, you're gone
