

Together Alone

Caliban

Your life is life, mine is just a lie!!!

Time passes by,
everything flows in the same stream
and we are driving down the river..

I pause and let you go.
My tears whip the river
There I stand, stiff for ever
Singing this song of mourning

My cradle is full of hope,
I don't give up,
I break the wall
(and fight, forever for my joy!)

You're going your own way, floating in another dream.
you feel no fear, no doubt,
your power keeps you real!
There will be new paths,
no doubt and well-fed fears,
We will go our ways alone, together alone.

Let's Go!

Your life is life, mine is just a lie!!!
