

Follow Your Heartbeat

Kyle Patrick

I don't believe it
I've always waited for this moment to come
Oh I can feel it
I'm gonna need you like the heat of the sun
And baby what you want you're gonna find
And I'll go all out to blow your mind
Are Ya ready now, ready now, ready now?
'Cause I'm, ready now, ready now, ready now

Oh, Don't think twice let's run away
Just you and me
Close your eyes and follow your heartbeat
Oh, Roll the dice I'll lead the way
Hold onto me
Close your eyes and follow your heartbeat

I don't believe it
We're getting naked on a beach in Brazil
Let's hit the city (New York City)
Rooftop hopping get a bottle and chill
California, we're gonna shake it like the Hollywood hills
Baby what you want you're gonna find
And I'll go all out to blow your mind
Are Ya ready now, ready now, ready now?
'Cause I'm, ready now, ready now, ready now

Oh, Don't think twice let's run away
Just you and me
Close your eyes and follow your heartbeat
Oh, Roll the dice I'll lead the way
Hold onto me
Close your eyes and follow your heartbeat

Love like this is crazy right?
What we got you can't deny
Love like this is worldwide
Love like this is worldwide
Love like this is worldwide
Love like this is worldwide
Are Ya ready now, ready now, ready now?
