Constellations

Tom Odell

You sat around the table, the candle lying low
There's people all around us but they're leaving you alone
You're telling me a story, some lover that you had
Go on tell me now, tell me now, I think I'll understandThe piano man is playing some old melody
It don't mean much to anyone while it does to you and me
It's just some bitter love song that everybody's heard
I'm gonna sing it out, sing it out, sing every single wordIt's the same old constellation
The stars up in the sky
Yeah, I've got a feeling
They're gonna look different tonightMaybe I'm just crazy, maybe I'm just high
You could kiss my lips a thousand times and they would never dry
I don't know where you're going, hey, never stray too far
Cause I'll tell you now, I'll tell you now, I like you just the way you areIt's the same old constellation
The stars up in the sky
Yeah, I've got a feeling
They're gonna look different tonightIt's the same old situation
That you can have with any guy
But go on put your arms around me
It's gonna be different tonightCaroline, Caroline, I used to act so strong
But I was just terrified, terrified, I feel it in my stumach
Call 'em butterflies, butterflies, there's something in the air tonight
They're gone, they're gone, they're goneIt's the same old constellation
The stars up in the sky
But you know I've got a feeling
They're gonna look different tonightIt's the same old conversation
You can have it anytime
Go on put your arms around me, baby
It's gonna be different tonight

Songwriters
ANDREW WILLIAM BURROWS, TOM PETER ODELLPublished by Lyrics Â© WARNER/CHAPPELL MUSIC LTD,

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/