Show Off

What's Eating Gilbert

I wanna ride up the coast with you
Yelling out my window so they know it was true
That you chose me to be your man
I wanna show you off every second that I canI'm not jealous, I don't care where you spend your nights, how you do your hair
Have your fun, it's simple and true
If I caught you messing round, I'd be leaving youI wanna ride up the coast with you
Yelling out my window so they know it was true
That you chose me to be your man
I wanna show you off every second that I can
I wanna go out to where we can dance
Let you flirt with some guy like he had a chance
At the last minute, I wait to grab your hand
I wanna show you off every second that I canI'm not threatening, I won't cry if you're being nice to another guy
'Cause he knows where I've been
I would let him down with all my friendsI wanna ride up the coast with you
Yelling out my window so they know it was true
That you chose me to be your man
I wanna show you off every second that I can
I wanna go out to where we can dance
Let you flirt with some guy like he had a chance
At the last minute, I wait to grab your hand
I wanna show you off every second that I canI wanna ride up the coast with you
Yelling out my window so they know it was true
That you chose me to be your man
I wanna show you off every second that I can
Every second that I can [x3]
I wanna show you off every second that I can
