In The Pouring Rain

Spottiswoode & His Enemies

Well the fog's coming down
And the moon is a blood and you want something to eat so you're wandering the streets
in the pouring rain.

And your friends are all there with a girl on each arm.
Laughing, smoking cigarettes and you're all soaking wet
in the pouring rain.

CHORUS:
And everyone is smiling everyone is beautiful
And there's a silver lining silver lining in your soul everything is shining everything is beautiful Ahh, Ahhh, Ahhhh

All the policemen are drunk
Though the night's just begun.
The whole city's gonna drown
And the wind'll blow you down
In the pouring rain.

CHORUS

And the girl at your side
Holds your umbrella high.
She's got everything you need,
And her kisses are so sweet
In the pouring rain.

CHORUS

In the pouring rain. (x3)
