Mistakes

Brian McFadden

You say you're sorry but you don't cry
There you crawl with your head held high
Play the angel with the broken wings
Push my buttons and pull my stringsYou keep talking me round
You keep talking me round, leave me senseless
You put words in my mouth
You put words in my mouth till I'm defenselessMy first mistake was loving you
My worst mistake was giving you a second chance
'Cause you tore me up and you called it love, you made a fool out of me
My last mistake was thinking I won't make the same mistake againSome people learn but they never live
They lost the fight so they just forgive
You see me reaching through an open flame
I feel alive when I'm burned againYou keep dragging me down, you keep dragging me down
I'm drowning in you
There's no hope for me now, there's no hope for me now
I should have walked awayMy first mistake was loving you
My worst mistake was giving you a second chance
'Cause you tore me up and you called it love, you made a fool out of me
My last mistake was thinking I won't make the same mistake againYou say you're sorry but you don't cry
There you crawl with your head held highMy first mistake was loving you
My worst mistake was giving you a second chance
'Cause you tore me up and you called it love, you made a fool out of meMy first mistake was loving you
My worst mistake was giving you a second chance
'Cause you tore me up and you called it love, you made a fool out of me
My last mistake was thinking I won't make the same mistake again
