Lyrics for Fathers Child by Abel Chungu Musuka

The mystery, revealed, the love and sacrifice.
Not of my own, but of the Son.
He came to me, in peace, and held me in His arms.

And said, "Today, I found true love."
He said, "Today, I found true love."

So it has been, since then, I've been my Fathers child.
When I received, His Son in me.
Down at his feet, is not where I am found to be.
(But on a seat, right by His side) x2

I have tasted Grace,
So sweet I can't let go.
Once an awful mess,
Now am pure...
What can separate,
Me from my Fathers arms.
(I will always be my Fathers Child) x2

So let us come, to Him, no matter who we are.
The price is paid, the path is cleared.
Don't be ashamed, His love, has washed away our sins.
(His made us new, all by His own) x2

And it's not yet revealed, what we, shall be in times to come.
But what can be, more glorious?
Than to be with, Our God, forever in His arms,
(And to be called, my Fathers Child) x2

I have found the love that never ends,
(Wherever I go, hoo hoo)
That faithful love until the end,
(No matter how far, hoo hoo)

I have found the love that never ends,
(No matter how far, hoo hoo)
That faithful love until the end,
(Wherever I go, hoo hoo)

(Until the end...)

Wherever I go, no matter how far (until the end...)
My heart is never alone,
Wherever I am (until the end...)
Your love remains the same (until the end...)
Your love will always save me...

Wherever I go, no matter how far (until the end...)
My heart is never alone,
Wherever I am (until the end...)
Your love remains the same (until the end...)
Your love will always save me...

(My Daddy You are) x3 to me Oh God
(My Daddy You are) x3 to me Oh God
(My Daddy You are) x3 to me Oh God
(My Daddy) x2 Daddy... Hoo hoo...
