

2nd Thought

Orchestral Manoeuvres in the Dark

although the order in our lives
along the way
we are the ones who never cry
like we don't care
today
me at home and you out there and on your way
it's gone so far and now it seems
it's only me
who cares
I know it helps the times you asked though never gave a little hope to set you free thus you stray
although the order in our lives
or so we're told
it's gone so far and now it seems
it's only me
along the way
along the way
along the way
