

Where Did Our Love Go

Diana Ross and the Supremes

Feeling so lonely
And I keep asking myself why
Baby, you never told me
That you would leave me without saying goodbye
Tear drops are slowly
Washing away the pain you left behind
As I try to walk on my own
I hear a voice that echoes on my mind
Amor, where did our love go?
I keep wishing for yesterday when you were with me
Amor, where did our love go?
I'd give up tomorrow to love you endlessly
Baby, I'm wishing
That you could hold me like you did before
Maybe I've gone crazy
Your love that was is now a love that's no more
Tear drops are slowly
Washing away the pain you left behind
As I try to walk on my own
I hear a voice that echoes on my mind
Amor, where did our love go?
'Cause it feels like only yesterday when you were with me
Amor, where did our love go?
I'd give anything to go back to how it used to be
How could a love so tender and free
End up in goodbye? I need to know
I've lost my heart, my soul, my hope, and my dreams
Can you please help me find, tonight Mi Amor?
