Dealer

Hipercore

That puts me in a good mood
Thinkin' about surfing
Wow, you should go surfing
You should go surfing
Surf this groovy vibe, aah
I'm gonna be a rich girl
Some kind of philanthropist
I'm gonna get high, get pissed
I'll be addicted to nothin'
Gonna be a wife and a mom
And when I call, people will come
Everybody will listen to me
But my hands will stay clean
Did you see it?
Did you see the finer print?
There are applicable taxes
Details inside the package
See my dealer for contest rules
I'm gonna go hungry
Gonna fight the fight
I'm gonna learn to go without
But I'm feeling no hunger pain
I'm gonna carry the cross
Like I carry the weight of the world
'N' cry all the tears
But I know it's not going to hurt
Did you see it?

Did you see the finer print?
There are applicable taxes
Details inside the package
See my dealer for contest rules
I'll see my dealer
I'll see my dealer
I'm gonna be a rich girl
Some kind of philanthropist
I'm gonna get high, get pissed
I'll be addicted to nothin'
Did you see it?

Did you see the finer print?
There are applicable taxes
Details inside the package
See my dealer for contest rules
Did you see it?
Did you see the finer print?
There are applicable taxes
Details inside the package
See my dealer for contest rules
I'll see my dealer
I'll see my dealer
Wow, surfing was great wasn't it?
Oh man, I love surfing
Nice day, eh?
