

White Room

Liblikas

So glad, rainbow smiled at me
Not mad, I cheat her with a jag So blue, I colored you not to feel so gladly mad, I rape my trees, they hug me back. So glad, green fields bloom for me Not mad from fear of being backstabbed White room - my home where from I admire you Madly sad, tied by shite sheets Earth take me back .
I steal a soul out of you,
you make a saint out of me
You make love to me
I make a bitch out of you Will it rain the same
if i don't change my name Oh, punish me to change. Will it rain the same
if i don't change my name.
Forever high,
I will serve my god and shall not die.
Kill me to kill my ego,
kill my ego to set me free,
to set me free!
