Dr. John

Father, just look what they done, done to your boy
Father, father, just look what they done, done to your boy
Father, father I have felt the mark, of ten thousand teeth
I done seen my body lying limply at my feet
As I've seen my soul, creeping out of my chest
Out my head towards the east, got victimed by the west
Father, father, just look what they done, done to your son
But it ain't so bad, I've been drinking while they're just having fun
Father, Father, just look what they done, done to your son I've seen visions of dolphins dancing in my head
But I'm not gonna worry, might wake up in the morning dead
But if I die, stoned before I wake Lord grant me one last wish, please unveil my fate (I didn't know what I been told a'bout the work of the devil and now I know) Father, father, just look what they done, done to your son
(I didn't know what I been told a'bout the work of the devil and now I know)
But it ain't so bad, I've been drinking while they're just having fun
(I didn't know what I been told a'bout the work of the devil and now I know)
Father, Father, look what they done, done to your son [Fade away]
