The Morning After

Timothy Bloom

I wanna lay
Your body down
Don't wanna think what's going on in the world
Just lay it down
I wanna know, what turns it on
Is it the light in the dark
Or your eyes that feel the moon with sunWhenever the sky falls
I want to be holding you
Making sweet love to you
Like if we never knewAnd just to feel earth shake
When your body moves
I'll know we'll be together, together
I'm counting on foreverThe morning After
After After After After
