The Rain

Kelly Price

It's funny but I can't laugh
It's so sad but I can't cry
But it doesn't mean
There's nothing left inside
I got some nasty scars
To prove what I been through
I guess it's safe to say
That I'm nothing like you
When your smile is your best kept secret
But when you smile, they say, girl, just keep it
Desperate for change
But things never change
So I'd rather stand in the rain
Though it's pouring down on me
It's washing all my pain away
Oh, I'd rather stand in the rain
It is pouring down on me
But it's washing all my pain
Washing all my pain away
The water's rising high
It overtakes my life
And I am saturated
I am
I won't let it drown me
'Cause hope has got me floating
Behind the clouds
A rain, oh, waits for me
When your smile is your best kept secret
But when you smile, they say, girl, just keep it
You're desperate for a change
But things never change
So I'd rather stand in the rain
Though it's pouring down on me
It's washing all my pain away
So I'd rather stand in the rain
It is pouring down on me
But it's washing all my pain
Washing all my pain away

Away, away, away, away

Pain away, pain away, pain away, away
Pain is gone
(It's raining)
Pain is gone
(It's raining)
Oh, it's gone
(It's raining)
Because it is raining on me
(It's raining)
Oh, whoa
(It's raining)
I know that it's raining
(It's raining)
Raining my pain away
(It's raining)
Draining my stress away
(It's raining)
Oh, raining
(It's raining)
Oh, raining
(It's raining)
Oh, rain
(It's raining)
Raining my pain away, my pain away
(It's raining)
Oh, oh, oh
(It's raining)
I can feel the rain
(It's raining)
Washing my pain away
(It's raining)
And washing my tears away
(It's raining)
When your smile is your best kept secret
When you smile, they say, girl, just keep it
Desperate for change
But things never change
So I'd rather stand in the rain
