Invisible

Kierra "kiki" Sheard

...A total ecllipse has just begun.
We blocked out the Son.
Can't belive this is what we've come to.
So you think that you're a star?
But the real star has some scars.
On His hands and feet where the nails went through.
God is headlining this show.
To introudce Him's what I'm here for.
So without further delay...
It's time to take to the stage!!
And I'll move out theway.
So that they only see, You that's inside of me!!
Don't let me block the view. That's not what I wanna do.
I gotta be seen through.
Make sure they're seenin' You.
Make me invisible.
The croud applauds, and now you're on.
They start to play your song.

But did He even come along?
Or did He get left behind? The day that you decided, that you would outshine His light?
But He's headlining this show.
To introduce Him's what I'm here for. So without further delay...
It's time to take to the stage.
And I'll move out the way.
So that they only see, YOU that's inside of ME.
Don't let me block the view.
That's not what I wanna do.
I've wanna be seen through. Make sure they're seeing YOU. Make me invisible...
Make me invisible.
(Guitar Solo)
It's time to take to the stage, then I'll move out the way.
So that they only see, that's You that's inside of me.
Don't let me block the view.
That's not what I wanna do.
I've gotta be seen through, make sure they're seein' You.
Make me invisible. x4
