

Evil

John Waite

I've been watching you, watching me
Can't you tell what I'm going through?
I wanna hold your fire, wanna get you higher
    Think of the things we'll do
    You put it out there, then you take it back
    You treat me like I'm your toy
    You know exactly what you're doing, just another heart in ruin
But I just wanna be your boyIt's evil, when something's so bad makes you feel this good
It's evil, alright, it's in my blood and it feels like it shouldStart to feel the rush of the thoughtful time
    Moonlight's kicking in the door
    Stay awake and keep it roar
Go all night and got before, you're beautifullI'm gonna take you on a drive around Central Park
    Buy you some real good french wine
    I'll treat you like a queen, you got a spell on me
It's a voodoo kind of thingIt's evil, when something's so bad makes you feel this good
It's evil, alright, it's in my blood and it feels like it shouldShe's so evil, way she walks into the room
    And I may not leave here alive
And the evil, and the evil, and the evil, and the evilDon't you know it's evil
    When something's so bad makes you feel this good
    It's evil, alright
    It's in my blood and it feels like it should
    It's evil
When something so bad makes you feel this good
    It's in my blood

Songwriters

Cook, Kyle / Waite, JohnPublished by

Lyrics © Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlrics.com/>