Capable

Dana Catherine

You are life in me
You are the air I breathe
Youâ€™re keeping me alive
Even when Iâ€™m running away

You are the light I see
When I am buried deep
You lift me from the ground
Giving me a chance to start again

You are relentlessly always taking care of me
And I am the guilty one I am so unworthy
You relentlessly always watching over me
And Iâ€™m the unworthy one

Where there is sorrow you are peace
Where is there pain you are relief
All of our chains you can release
To save the unsaveable
Where there is stain wipe it clean
You are the only good there is me
And itâ€™s so unmistakable
Oh Lord, You are, Lord, You are capable

You are life in me
You are the air I breathe
Youâ€™re keeping me alive
Even when Iâ€™m running away

You are the light I see
When I am buried deep
You lift me from the ground
Giving me a chance to start again

You are relentlessly always taking care of me
And I am the guilty one I am so unworthy
You relentlessly always watching over me
And Iâ€™m the unworthy one

Where there is sorrow you are peace

Where is there pain you are relief
All of our chains you can release
To save the unsaveable
Where there is stain wipe it clean
You are the only good there is me
And itâ€™s so unmistakable
Oh Lord, You are, are, are

You are relentlessly always taking care of me
And I am the guilty one I am so unworthy
You relentlessly always watching over me
And Iâ€™m the unworthy one

Where there is sorrow you are peace
Where is there pain you are relief
All of our chains you can release
To save the unsaveable
Where there is stain wipe it clean
You are the only good there is me
And itâ€™s so unmistakable

Lord, You are capable (x2)
