Me and the Bees

The Softies

Take it downstairs
No one here cares
Take it outside
Find someplace good to hideNow it's just me and the bees
In a cyclone of falling leavesGo for a ride
The road opens wide
Nobody knows
These trials and woesNow it's just me and the bees
In a cyclone of falling leavesCaught in the wind
Coldest I've ever been
Too bad it's true
I'm still in love with youNow it's just me and the bees
In a cyclone of falling leaves
