Lost Soul

Char Avell

(ooooooooh) (heeey)
This goes out to you if you lost somebody, this goes out to you if you lost somebody (oh)
no-one knows I cry every other night, since the time you left my side oh why?
no-one knows what I feel what I feel deep inside
No matter how many tears i cry still cant get you back in my life.

The day you left me one guy took you away
the pain i went through i cant explain
so many tears came pouring out i couldn't stop them no i didn't know how hey,why did you have to go and leave us so, so cold?
You took my heart and you took my soul
I know we will meet again at the end of a road
the time has gone slow, I just cant Eros.
I just cant hold on no no no no
I just cant hold on no no no no
I just cant hold on no no no nooo
I just cant hold on no no no noooooo

when I saw you lying on the bed you looked so peaceful ohhhhhh oh so i held your hand felt so cold
And i knew i would never ever see you back in my world

The day you left me one guy took you away (ohh)
the pain i went through i cant explain (cant explain)
so many tears came pouring out i couldn't stop them no, (no) i didn't know how
hey,why did you have to go and leave us so, so cold?
You took my heart and you took my soul
I know we will meet again at the end of a road (i pray lord we meet again)
the time has gone slow, I just cant Eros.
I just cant hold on no no no no
I just cant hold on no no no no (Oh)
I just cant hold on no no no nooo
I just cant hold on no no no no no
