

Fucked Up Situation

Angie Martinez

The brightest diamonds ever known
Yeah, Angie mar
T-Ice, take it to the record
I wish you understood how I feel 'cause these words is real
After that bullshit I couldn't prefer to chill
But tell you what you deserve to get
But I still sat back and heard your shit
You said chill it was the shit but come on I deserve to be mad
That whole situation was bad, I wish there was one of those moments in
I could break and just laugh but it was too serious to take what I had
I mean what I had was deep it's still deep but damn
It's sad to see how one weekend could be like damn
One situation see I can in, have type of relation he's my man
Or he's my nigga or, he's my try to understand
Please pa, honest is the plan and I don't mean
Please pa, beggin' with my hands I mean like
Please pa, I got feelings, damn
See, I know what you're facing, this fucked up situation
And maybe she might like me or may even dislike me
'Cause baby you're a part of me and baby it's just hard to see
That you complained everyday but you would love me anyway
Ah yea I know know I was wrong too I made the wrong move
I went and looked through something that belonged to you
And I found out suttin' I was all confused mixed emotions coming
Feeling all abused
Shocked when I read me you was calling boo
Dropped it and I left slowed down no talking to you
You'll never understand how I felt waking downstairs
And you knew something was wrong but I had to finish that song
Couple minutes didn't really take me that long
Still feeling confused but I had to go strong and attract

And relax, sit back then you came in and you asked what's wrong
The fact is displaying
I didn't have to say it stop playing
Shit, at that point even you knew I was ok to flip How could you no matter what you thought we was Just go around the word called love come on
See, I know what you're facing, this fucked up situation

And maybe she might like me or may even dislike me
'Cause baby you're a part of me and baby it's just hard to see
That you complained everyday but you would love me anyway
That's exactly how it is, exactly what I'm talking about
Exactly where it'll end up this song after I'm walkin' out
Niggas don't understand when you give them your all
How many times you hang up when you're dying to call
Try to dial his numbers and you start with the first four
And when you get to seven your heart beat like you're eleven
I learned my lesson and I waive if there was any
I still try to understand shit with out no henny
Just a clear mind while you're thinking it's just smear rhymes
I gotta go through this shit and still report fine
And get on air be clear animal for real each year
The bullshit going on I'm prepared
I ain't the only one, chicks be going through it
Niggas don't understand we be borderline losing it
And these feelings is real so like I said in the first verse
I wish you understood how I feel for real
See, I know what you're facing, this fucked up situation
And maybe she might like me or may even dislike me
'Cause baby you're a part of me and baby it's just hard to see
That you complained everyday but you would love me anyway
