Disappear

Crooked Fingers

they say the Devil never cries but baby on the sad day we said goodbye my babyred tears flowed down the mountainside black dust filled up the starry sky fire turned to smoke so fastif we all say we want to be free why's a dead love's so hard to let be when there's no use in saving a dead love that's fading
a dead love that's meant to be doneKerry, don't cry I'm gonna disappear and take this sorrow far away so you can live your lifeno need to ride through salt tracks and and sad tears there's beauty in an ugly thing redemption in demisewe kept each other's lonely hearts from breaking you and your closed-eyed played guitar but babythose songs I played for you are done sad songs should never last too long hearts turn from red to blackand we all think we want to be free though a dead love's so hard to let be
and take these sad songs far away
through salt tracks and and sad tears
redemption in demise
