

Why Is It Never Enough

Bonfire

Yeah

Always was a gypsy ... but not because of love
But I never was an angel ... when the road was getting rough
Just like a boomerang ... thrown into the blue
I'll always come back to you, yeah I hate to say farewell

I got to leave you again

But all I have inside is staying with you

And the wind sings its song Chorus:

Tell me why is it never enough

And why I'm running away from your love

Tell me - why is it never enough

Must be another dream that I'm dreaming of

Yeah I'm sitting by a river ... in a god-forsaken town

I feel a little homesick ... and I'm feeling down

The river keeps flowing ... and I have to keep on going

There's nothing I can't do, no I'm never satisfied

I want it all ... at one time

And I raise my questions to the sky

But there is no reply Chorus I hate to say farewell...

Cause I got to leave you again

But all I have inside is staying with you

And the wind sings its song Chorus

Why is it never enough - never enough

And why I'm running away from your love

Tell me - why is it never enough
