Break Out

Lovekillcircus

this morning I got up to see the same old things so I try to switch it up I try to switch it up but I still feel like I'm taking the same old steps yeah I feel like I'm stuck yeah I feel like I'mstuck inside an illusion nothing here seems to be right and I cant stand it we live our lives pretending everything's going to be fine but inside we're screamingtonight lets brake out and become what we are meant to be.
I'm so tired of feeling, like a slave to societytime is passing quick we wish we could escape having to face tomorrow same as yesterday a simple spurt of anger turns into a rage because we feel so stuck because we feel sostuck inside an illusion nothing here seems to be right and we cant stand it we live our lie's pretending everything's going to be fine but inside we're screaming.tonight lets brake out and become what we are meant to be.
I'm so tired of feeling, like a slave to society Yeah. Yeah. Yeah.
