Eternal

Mariachi El Bronx

We can tell
That you're not feeling well
And we can see
That you need companyYou've been seeing things
Saying crazy things
We know you've had it rough
Once was not enoughWe got some scientists
They got some therapy
With a little luck
You'll get the help you need
See your dreams running through your bones
They filled you with morphine so you're not alone.Caught in between two different worlds of stone and sand
What doesn't break you down or spin you around slips through your hands
Death, is that all that's left
Give us a sign radiant mind
No matter what happens to you
You'll always be eternally
With us allEternally
With us all
