Say No to War (feat. Aditya)

Siddharth

Yo People!
How you all doing
I hope you're doing great
'Cause now!
Emma screw your heads up.What the f*ck did you change your Dp for?
People die and all you sh*ts are feeling sour?
Most of you Don't give a rat's a about it.
All you do is follow that stupid trending shit
The stand you've taken for is frangible,
This shit is recondite and Tangible
These E attack in the name of their religion
Maybe they should make their asses see some vision
Each high command tries to take the other Down
All we are to them is a bunch of stupid clowns
This planet is virtually in a state of war
Peace for them is an antonym of a shining star.
NASA, please find us another planet to live
I really don't understand for why these f*cks kill!
Either we'll go there or please send them
Coz i can't see the time when their assess will be shamed
ABCDEFGHIJKLMNO
November 9, 26 Syria and Charlie Hebdo...
All incidents have one fucking thing in common,
Innocents died in firing and bombing.
Who will even try to pay for the dead?
We need to extradite all the roots and stems.
Everybody will just open their mouths and shout and sayChhod na yaar, iss duniya mai peace naam ki koi cheez hi nahi hai.All they wish is to demolish.
All we do is to sit and scoff,
when somewhere in the world the wheels fall off
What do they get by these wars? (2)See, everyone is biased according to their own sense
Why is there a need of such a pathetic fence?
Do you see anybody who is trying to make friends!?
Just BOOM BOOM BOOM, an no offence?
Kill everybody till you reach the state of Jamais vu
Ain't nobody out there who epitomises the truth.
Why do they plant more thorns than flowers and fruits?
These high commands are filled with heaps of sweet tooth!
Come, you b*tches, have a go at me, shoot!

Coz i am not going to be a part of this godforsaken moot!
Why are you selective on your Panglossian hortatory?
Do the ones you follow will solve this diaphanous mystery?
And the day when al our a*ses will be magnanimous,
we'll leave behind all this pain and torture plus
there won't be again this sort of useless fuss,
the world will be full of beauty and trust!
And that day
You will again come out and shout and sayBaccho, iss duniya mai peace naam ki cheez hi nahi thi..
