Blackjack

Everclear

Scary John gets his strong arm on
He can break me and make me
Happy with his blackjackScary John has the heavy hand on
He smiles without his eyes
Nice and easy with his blackjackDon't tell me that you didn't see this coming down
Please don't say that this isn't what you wanted nowScary John gets his strong arm on
He can break me and make me
Happy with his blackjackScary John always knows what's going on
He is everywhere
Happy with his blackjackDon't tell me that you didn't see this coming down
No, no, no
Please don't say that this isn't what you wanted nowYeah, this is your American dream
Everything is simple in the white and the black
You'll never need to see the gray anymore
You will never have to be afraid
When you are happy with the blackjackI hope you're happy with the blackjack
I hope you're happy with the blackjackScary John wants to kill my song
He doesnt like the fact
Im not happy with the blackjackI don't want to hear the words that he has to sayDon't tell me that you didn't see this coming down
Please don't tell me that this isn't what you wanted now
Please don't tell me that this isn't what you asked forBe careful what you ask for
Be careful what you ask for
Be careful what you ask forYeah, this is your American dream
Everything is simple in the white and the black
You never need to see the gray anymore
You never need to be afraid
When you are happy with the blackjackI hope you're happy with the blackjack
I hope you're happy with the blackjack
I hope you're happy with the blackjack
I hope you're happy with the blackjackYeah, this is your American dream
This is your American dream
Yeah, this is your American dream
This is your American dream
