

I Didn't Want to Join Your Stupid Cult Anyway

Every Time I Die

I'm joining a cult,
joining a cult,
joining a cultCut off my hair,
Clean out my head,
Fill me with songScrap of salted ice
Leave my friends behindSay I'm free
Say I'm free
Say I'm free and I amSay I'm free
Say I'm free
Say I'm free and I amReverse the pull of the magnet Pierce the armor of habitI'm joining a cult,
joining a cult,
joining a cultCut off my hair,
Clean out my head,
Fill me with songWilling to surrender to persist
Empty staring dumb shit-eating grinTeach me to breed,
Don't let me thinkBreak me in half
Teach me to breed
Don't let me thinkTeach me to breed
Don't let me think
Wipe out my past
Break me in halfWe're going to get carried away
We're going to get carried away
We're going to get carried awayNew clothes
New home
New job
New god
For faith to doubt
Of hard-heart to short out?From Parts UnknownTo street fame and ??
Choking hand?I'm stuck here in no draw?
I don't understandDrink up. Drink up. Drink up. Drink up.
Drink up.Teach me to breath
Don't let me think
Wipe out my past
Break me in halfI'm joining a cult
joining a cult
joining a cult
