Iced Over

Catamenia

Thru the thick bright ice
I see the thundering sky
Cold I feel on my skin
Move I can't, ice covering meThoughts crawl into my head
Wish I was soon to be dead
This pain what I feel
Is something that I can't dealPlease someone end this miseryAll my life, like endless night
All my pain, go away
In my mind, I see I die
Only dream is what I seeCan't see the light of day
Feels like I'm passing away
Time became meanless
Fighting for a life is uselessPlease someone end this sorrowWaiting that sweet death
To end this sick nightmare
Come here to me to get
Now I'm leaving from herePlease someone end my life
