She Kicks Ass

Puggy

She means the world to me
As far as I believe
She's made of ecstasy
My girl she kicks assWhen we stop
Didn't stop the pain
We beat
The shit out of the day
Everything we did
Felt right
Everyone we knew
Knew why
Nothing that we did
Would make any sense
Oh yeahShe means the world to me
As far as I believe
She's made of ecstasy
My girl she kicks ass
We've been the world around
We brought down every town
Drank like we own the crown
My girl she kicks assWhen we stop
Didn't stop the rain
We beat
The rhythm that it made
Stuck around till dawn took fright
Left away around the night
Everything we did
We did the sameShe means the world to me
As far as I believe
She's made of ecstasy
My girl she kicks ass
We've been the world around
We brought down every town
Drank like we own the crown
My girl she kicks assShe means the world to me
As far as I believe
She's made of ecstasy
My girl she kicks ass
We've been the world around

We brought down every town
Drank like we own the crown
My girl she kicks ass
