

Me and Bobby McGee

The Highwaymen

Busted flat in Baton Rouge headed for the trains
    Feelin' nearly faded as my jeans
Bobby thumbed a diesel down just before it rained
Took us all the way to New OrleansI took my har'poon out of my dirty red bandanna
    I was playin' sad while Bobby sang the blues
    With them windshield wipers slappin' time
        And Bobby clappin' hands
    We finally sang up ever song that driver knew
        Nothin' ain't worth nothin' but it's free
    Feeling good was easy Lord when Bobby sang the blues
        Feeling it was good enough for me
Good enough for me and Bobby McGeeFrom the coal mines of Kentucky to the California sun
    Bobby shared the secrets of my soul
    Standin' right beside me Lord through everything I done
Every night she'd keep me from the coldSomewhere near Salinas Lord Bobby slipped away
    Lookin' for the home I hope she'll find
    I'd trade all of my tomorrows for just one yesterday
        Holding her body close to mine
        Nothin' ain't worth nothin' but it's free
    Feeling good was easy Lord, when Bobby sang the blues
        Feeling it was good enough for me
    Good enough for me and Bobby McGee
