None

Life of Agony

We once were one but now we just are over
We'll talk things out, perhaps I'll lend my shoulder
Now none is what we have become, we're falling
Where nobody knows, inside the unknown, still fallingI'm shivering and shaking like a leaf within
I'm shivering and shaking like a leaf withinIn this life I've naturally grown bolder
In this life, desperation's frozen
As desperate as we are they see no movement
Stagnant situations can be fumingI'm shivering and shaking like a leaf within
I'm shivering and shaking like a leaf within
I'm shivering and shaking like a leaf within
I'm shivering and shaking like a leaf withinAnd now we're none
And now we're none
And now we're none
And now we're noneI'm shivering and shaking like a leaf within
I'm shivering and shaking like a leaf within
I'm shivering and shaking like a leaf within
I'm shivering and shaking like a leaf withinAnd now we're none
And now we're none
And now we're none
And now we're none
