Embrace

Korn

Blood is boring

Sleep is boring

Don't stop running

I'm here counting The life, the hurt, the pain, the hate

The life, the hurt, the pain, the hate

The life, the hurt, the pain, the hate

Will he keep fuckin' with me? There's no where else to goSo I walk but seem to crawl

For I'm giving in today

Now I run into a wall

'Cause I cannot fight my wayYou've gotta come with me

(I cannot stand this place)

We're falling off the world

(And I'll give in this way)

We had a chance to run

(And now I can't believe)

We're going all the way

(And all the affairs embrace) My life, worry

Life is story

Give up beating

I'll start needing The life, the hurt, the pain, the hate

The life, the hurt, the pain, the hate

The life, the hurt, the pain, the hate

Will he keep fuckin' with me? There's no where else to goSo I walk but seem to crawl

For I'm giving in today

Now I run into a wall

'Cause I cannot fight my wayYou've gotta come with me

(I cannot stand this place)

We're falling off the world

(And I'll give in this way)

We had a chance to run

(And now I can't believe)

We're going all the way

(And all the affairs embrace) What really do I have to follow?

Nothing makes sense at all

Taking something for nothing

Watch me as I fallI'm bringing me down

I'm bringing me down

I'm bringing me down

I'm bringing me downYou've gotta come with me

(I cannot stand this place)
We're falling off the world
(And I'll give in this way)
We had a chance to run
(And now I can't believe)
We're going all the way
(And all the affairs embrace)You've gotta come with me
(I cannot stand this place)
We're falling off the world
(And I'll give in this way)
We had a chance to run
(And now I can't believe)
We're going all the way
