Never Really Mine

Liz Longley

There you were when I saw her
Wrapping your arms around her
Baby you can't deny it
Saw it with my own two eyes and I don't even wanna fight it just wanna run away into the night'Cause I can still hear our laughter
And every word that came after Lying there in the darkness
Thinking your heart was harmless
Now I'm here in this hotel room
Trying to wash the pain from my eyes
Did I imagine everything?
Everything you said to me
I made believe you and I were meant to be
And then I saw you with somebody else
It pulled me backwards and put me through hell
And I realized you were never really mineI don't know what I did
You flipped a switch
Now it's like you're a different person
What did I miss?
'Cause I don't know if I miss you
Or if I just wish you goodbyeDid I imagine everything?
Everything you said to me
I made believe you and I were meant to be
And then I saw you with somebody else
It pulled me backwards and put me through hell
And I realized you were never really mine
Every time I think of how it used to be
Every time
Every time I think of what I would've done differently
Every time
Every timeDid I imagine everything?
Everything you said to me
I made believe you and I were meant to be
And then I saw you with somebody else
It pulled me backwards and put me through hell
And I realized you were never really mineDid I imagine everything?
Everything you said to me
I made believe you and I were meant to be

And then I saw you with somebody else
It pulled me backwards and put me through hell
And I realized you were never really mine
You were never really mine
You were never really mine
Mine
Did I imagine imagine everything?
Did I imagine imagine everything?
