

Say Something

Something for Kate

tonight is like space invaders there is nothing at work the faces have become like traffic multi-purpose conversation i stand like a lighthouse i have become a lighthouse but if we met we would exhaust this place and if you spoke then this world would short-circuitsay something make it a direct hit
make me never forgeti don't want to stand and compute i want days and weeks to burst out of you i am listening for dear life i want you to talk like it's a breakthrough(repeat first chorus)
