As Summer Dies

This is a note to a person who hates me
Every day gives more reasons that I agree.
In the mirror I'm sickened by what I see
Do you hear me

This is a note to a person who hates me
Tear my eyes out of my skull if you can't see
The loss of your light it's still blinding me...

Sincerely

As I fail
As I fall
As I curse every day that I wake

As I am
As I stall
My death every breath that I take
As I fail
As I fall
As I curse every day that I wake
As I am
As I stall
My death every breath that I take

This is a message for someone who hates me
Every day is a miss opportunity
To extinguish the heart beating in me
Here's an apology!

This is note to a person who hates me
Hard to believe how fragile a life can be
But I know now this world is not long for me
Sincerely

This is the end of my last cry for help.
Can you hear it?
This is seeping through all I have felt.
I don't want it.

Sincerely!!
