Suddenly

Creed

A nature to nurture, an instinct to sin
What's under me the skin you live in
You trade your limit, your precious creation
You will submit, you will give inSuddenly I have no strength at all
So suddenly hit with all I've lost
Suddenly my world is falling apart
So suddenly, so suddenly, suddenlyYou say you're a victim but that's just a symptom
It's so very clear, you volunteered
Why are you fighting? Just stop your denying Own up to the sin you bury withinSuddenly I have no strength at all
So suddenly hit with all I've lost
Suddenly my world is falling apart
So suddenly, so suddenly, suddenlyI have no strength at all
I've been hit with a loss
So suddenly my world falls apartI have no strength at all
I've been hit with a loss
Suddenly my world falls apart
My world falls apart, my worldSuddenly I have no strength at all
So suddenly hit with all I've lost
Suddenly my world is falling apart
So suddenly, so suddenlySuddenly I have no strength at all
So suddenly hit, so suddenly hit
Suddenly my world falls apart
So suddenly, so suddenly, suddenlySuddenly my world falls apart
My world is falls apart, my world
