Telepathy

Crosses

You hang there on the wall
You've carved out your place
But I can tell you shake from insideI see it all the time
The feel is always there
Just frozen in your mind from insideI wasn't gonna play it tonight
But I can't help it
The feelings alive
As long as you play my game
I'll let you winBefore your entrance wave
Before we play this game
I like to feel you break from inside
You're gold and pink inside
And it's showing through your stare
It's frozen us in time from insideI wasn't gonna play it tonight
But I can't help it
The feelings alive
As long as you play my game
I'll let you winCome play my game
I'll let you winI wasn't gonna play it tonight
But I can't help it
The feelings alive
As long as you play my game
I'll let you win
