Again

Donnie Mcclurkin

Oh oh, once again yeah, once again
Again I call you and again you answer
Again I need you and again you're there
Again I reach out and again you hold me
You console me once more, and
When I needed company, someone just to sit with me
When I need a helping hand, someone to understand me, yes
When I need someone who cares, someone to wipe away my tears
Reach out and calm my fears, I know that you'll be there, oh
Again I call you and again you answer
Again I need you and again you're there
Again I reach out and again you hold me
You console me once more, and again
Every time I turn around, the most amazing thing I've found
You're there to pick me up each time when I fall down
You never seem to mind and you're always treating me so kind
Time after every time, you've proven once again
Again I call you and again you answer

Again I need you and again you're there
Again I reach out and again you hold me
You console me once more, and again, and again
And again, you will come through once again
Again I call you and again you answer
Again I need you and again you're there
Again I reach out and again you hold me
You console me once more, and again
And again you answer
Again I need you and again you're there
Again I reach out and again you hold me
You console me once more, and again, and again, and again, and again
And again, you will come through once again
And again, and again, and again, and again, and again
And again, you will come through once again
And again, and again, and again, and again, and again
And again, you will come through once again
And again, and again, and again, and again, and again
And again, you will come through once again
