Drowning

Ours

It sounds like a violent storm
Hold him down now the tides are strong
I survived the wave, but now I'm gone
How am I to change the damage done?
Maybe today, today we'll die
Maybe today, today we'll die
Forgive us and take away the crimes
Maybe today we'll die
There's a fire in the wind and the oxygen
There's a round I'm afraid your name is up
If I gave you the rain you'd crave the sun
When I took it away you came undone
Even the rain can't take the sun
Can't take it away
File into the line where everyone just waits to find Another thing to steal that's mine
It's unbelievable humankind
It's unbelievable, it's painful now
How come everybody's doing different than they've said?
Complaining that they're living and they'd rather be dead
He's part of the new school that shows
The so many things that he don't know
Baby today, today we died
Baby today, today we died
Forgive us and take away the crimes
Baby today we died
I had a hard time thinking, I had the hardest fall
I'm drowning and now I'm sinking into it all
Remember the words of someone, someone I used to know
Love everyone, but keep them far from your soul

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/