

Man of Stone

Stan Ridgway

It could have been a million years ago or maybe yesterday

I crawled out of this wilderness, a debt I had to pay

I must have tipped the scales somewhere way back

Never saw the seeds I'd sown

So now I travel backwards looking for a man of stoneA foggy night, a neon light... I've seen him standing there

Movin' where the shadows creep no he never did play fair

And one night I almost got him, but I knew you'd tapped my phone

And communication is dangerous, lookin' for a man of stoneWith Juan in Argentina I thought I saw him in the street

In a seaplane over Hydra he sat in the captain's seat

And I've chased him from the Colosseum down the Spanish steps in Rome

And history just gets hazy lookin' for a man of stoneIn the mornin' out your I saw him leanin' on a tree

Wearin' a snappy suit of grey and then he motioned to me

He pointed with his finger, as if to say my soul he owned

But I had sold that long ago to you lookin' for a man of stone

Songwriters

RIDGWAYPublished by

Lyrics Â© BMG RIGHTS MANAGEMENT US, LLC

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>