

Just Couldn't Wait

Grand Funk Railroad

I miss her face, but the girl left seven years ago
Guess, I never should've let her go
That's how I feel because I love her so
But I'm afraid that she will never know
She just couldn't wait, she said she couldn't wait till Sunday
She just couldn't wait, my baby just couldn't wait, no
She said she couldn't wait till Sunday, till Sunday
Oh, tell me now, where do the broken-hearted go from here
You missed her love and now you're steering clear
I ain't afraid of nothin' but my fear
The fear that she might see this rollin' tear
She just couldn't wait, she said she couldn't wait till Sunday
She just couldn't wait, my baby just couldn't wait, no
She just couldn't wait, my baby just couldn't wait, no
Oh, she couldn't wait till Sunday no, till Sunday
She just couldn't wait, my baby just couldn't wait, no
She said she couldn't wait till Sunday
She just couldn't wait, my baby just couldn't wait, no
She said she just couldn't wait
You know she just couldn't wait, no
She said she couldn't wait till Sunday, till Sunday

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>