The Beautiful Mistake

A premature disclosure
And it filling up this meeting that wee had
These broken phrases catch me with my guard down
With my guard downI left myself wide open
I left myself for you
I left myselfI took a dive for your deep end
Thinking everything just fine
I broke my heart on your shallow side, and i?
Your shallow sideI left myself wide open
I left myselfWhy do I feel the same?
Why do I feel?
Why do I feel this way?
This way?
